

2023 Far West Excellence in Business Awards

Terms, conditions, and guidelines

“The Awards put exceptional business people in the spotlight, acknowledging their hard work and commitment in building great businesses within their communities.

The Awards exists to reward the drive, persistence and determination shown by so many, and to put regional business on the map”

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Far West Excellence in Business Awards is the region's most prestigious and celebrated annual business event. Established in 2014, the Awards returned in 2022 after the global Covid epidemic. Established to recognise and celebrate the achievements of people and businesses in the region, the Awards offer an important opportunity to showcase the achievements and capabilities of the businesses that form the backbone of the region's economy.

The Far West Excellence in Business Awards;

- Provide inspiration to local businesses.
- Set benchmarks for best practice.
- Celebrate outstanding achievements.
- Encourage business to innovate and plan for the future.
- Recognise exceptional staff.
- Recognise the commitment and achievement of the region's apprentices and trainees.

Since 2014, the outstanding achievements of a wide range of organisations have been acknowledged, regardless of the size of the industry or business.

The Judging Process

The Business Awards categories are judged by an independent panel of experts. None of the panel have visited our region and their assessment will be based purely on the information you include in your nomination. They are not aware of your business or the outstanding achievements of your business or team, if you don't tell them they won't know.

The People's Choice Awards are judged locally by RDA Far West by a simple count, the nominees in each category with the highest number of votes will be declared the winner.
